Dear Friends,

How's life? We are doing well! God has really blessed us with an amazing summer! We still can't believe it's almost over but we enjoyed every single day. We feel like we have had a good workout, you know, when your body hurts but you feel good about it. :)

To sum up this summer: we had 5 Camps (2 Kids Camps, 2 English Camps, and 1 Youth Camp) and 2 Inner City Outreaches. In our previous newsletter, we shared about the first 3 camps, and in this letter I (Serghei) want to share about our last two camps.

The Youth Camp went well. My favorite part was the evening debates. Every evening right after the Bible hour, teens broke up into small groups to discuss the lesson. I challenged them to come up with the most difficult question to ask their counselor. They sure did! After one of those discussions, a camper said, "My life is not gonna be the same after this evening." This camper trusted her life to Christ in the English Camp, which followed the Youth Camp.

English Camp was full. We had 8 teachers from Georgia, 12 leaders and helpers, and 42 campers. It seemed to be the most difficult camp of this summer. Yet the youth started asking questions, then asking for Bibles. Close to the end of the camp 2 girls prayed to receive Christ. Many others started asking more questions about God and life. We gave 20 Bibles away at that camp and everyone who got a Bible promised to read it. The first Sunday after the camp about 20 teens from our last camp showed up for the church service. It was a big surprise for me to see some guys there because they opposed Bible lessons at the camp. I am glad there were able to come and see what a church is according to the Bible.

Overall through the camps and inner city projects, God has used our church to touch a little over 200 lives. Last Saturday we had our first youth meeting after the camps. We had about 60 teens show up. Please pray that God saves those who have not yet trusted Him and brings them to church so His fruit remains and multiplies. Also pray for those that did accept the Lord into their lives. Pray for them to join a Bible study group and grow in Christ with us daily.

The summer is almost over but life does not slow down for us. Olga will continue leading women's ministry in September. Also in September, we will take another couple through premarital counseling. I (Serghei) have 3 classes for my MA program: 2 in Vienna, Austria (Sept., and Oct - each class one week long), and 1 online class. Please pray for extra funds I need for Vienna classes ($500 - traveling expenses). If God leads you to donate towards this need, please send a check to the address on the left, designating it for "Serghei Moraru - MA Program," or you can click DONATE ONLINE and donate via PayPal.

Your prayers and support make a big difference in our lives and ministry! Please continue praying for God to use us mightily for His glory here in Moldova! Also, please let us know how you are doing and how we can pray for you. We are definitely looking forward to hearing from you!
