Dear Friends,

Hi! How are you? There is so much to tell about this summer, but I know even a book would not cover it. So, we will just summarize it for you here. :) God has definitely blessed us with great camps and inner city projects!

We have been blessed with 4 camps (2 junior high, 1 English, and 1 youth) and 3 inner city outreaches. We were able to minister to over 200 teens this summer. We definitely met a lot of new people. We also visited some new and revisited some of the elderly in our community during our food delivery project.

I (Serghei) was able to spend some time and share my faith with some guys I have known for over 5 years. Some of them have stopped coming to our youth ministry meetings because they have jobs and do not have much time to spend time with us. But it was definitely good to know they still remember us being Christians who have tried to influence them in a good way. We continue praying for these guys to come to know the Lord in a personal way.

As always, camps (at least in our ministry) are the best way to influence teenagers. We had several teenagers pray to receive Christ during the camps. Many people had serious questions which made them think about their relationship (or absence of it) towards God. I (Serghei) heard some guys while they were talking to someone say that they believed in God. Knowing they have not been attending any church and knowing their lifestyle, I was very surprised to hear they consider themselves believers. It just untied my hands to approach them and explain the relationship with God according to the Bible. :) I praise God for the opportunities He is giving me for follow-up and discipleship!

Another great thing we have noticed this year: some guys from the youth ministry started attending our church service on a regular basis. They are not very vocal on changes in their lives but I can tell there is something going on. These guys started bringing their friends to our weekly youth meetings and to the church as well. Our prayer is for these new guys to see Christ in their friends that brought them to church!

God has blessed my girls with another birthday on June 24th which they have shared for the last 3 years. Xenia turned 3 and Olga turned 32 years old. They are my blessings whom God graciously gave to me! Tomorrow, August 21st, Olga and I are celebrating our 10th anniversary. We cannot look back without thanking Him for taking care of us all these years. And we are definitely thankful for you being a part of our family and ministry during these years as well! We can't wait to see what's next!

Your missionaries, Serghei, Olga and Xenia! :)
